Please note that this is a review for Anna Quindlen's Black and Blue, not a book by James Patterson - Amazon have done one of their strange link-ups here! So don't just give it a negative vote for not being for the Patterson book, please - I can't find any other way to write a review for the Quindlen.

If you have been lucky enough never to have been hit by a man, Anna Quindlen Black and Blue is written so that you can walk in a beaten woman's shoes. No intelligent woman would ever stay with a man who hits her, right? But love does many things to a person and intelligence is usually the first thing that goes.
