Juvenile potty/drug-induced humor ubiquitously characterizes every page of Matt Furie's Boy's Club. Whether it's a dog (Andy), a bunny (Brett), a frog (Pepe), or Landwolf (a humanoid version of snuffaluffagus), or any combination of such, puerile acts that are just as puerile as the art that depicts them floods each panel.

Boy's Club by Matt Furie

Matt Furie's wildly popular teenage weirdoes are back! Boy's Club 3 serves up the hi-jinx of best friends Andy, Brett, Landwolf, and Pepe, who deliver a "long one," an issue-length tale of the toilet. Boy's Club 3 mixes child-like enchantment, hedonism, and "adult" scenarios into a bucket of mischief that overflows with laffs.
