Careless love: the unmaking of Elvis Presley - Peter ...

Music scholar Peter Guralnick chose with care the title of the second half of his immense (and immensely important) Elvis biography. The first half, 1994's Last Train To Memphis, had as its central figure a somewhat cryptic Elvis Presley, and concerned itself equally with the environment of 1950s Memphis that allowed such an unexpected mixture of musical styles to come bubbling up through him.
