GUIDE: An Introduction to Community Development

Introduction to Community. An online community can be defined as a place where a group of people with a common interest can connect as a community, work together, and pursue their interests. In your case, this is your customers and they are coming together because they use your product (s). Having an online community gives them a place to discuss best practices, ask questions, share issues, and, most importantly, to connect with each other and with your company.
