His first drawing book was the Usborne step by step drawing animals book which I also recommend. This book is helping him go from stick figure drawings to more detailed drawings of people. The left photo was just days before receiving this book. And the right picture was his first drawing out of this book. It is a great step by step drawing book.

Usborne I Can Draw Consultant Review: This is an amazing first learning to draw book for toddlers on up! Each page is full of bright illustrated pages that look like crayon drawings of different animals. Even the little kids can quickly learn and really enjoy drawing with the simple steps on each page.

I Can Draw Animals - Surprise Usborne Books

My 4 yr old daughter loves drawing people, so I knew she would be thrilled with this book! Like the other reviewer said, she very quickly progressed from stick figures to more realistic ones in her free-drawing. She was also able to copy the book figures impressively well. I like the page that gives examples of different facial expressions.
