Only the Animals by Ceridwen Dovey - Goodreads

Only the Animals. by Ceridwen Dovey. The animals in Franz Kafka's stories are so uncannily charismatic that they are still among the first we turn to, a century after their creation, in discussions of writing about other species. Of these creatures – the mouse in 'Josephine the Singer', the youth-turned-cockchafer in 'Metamorphosis', the loquacious canine in 'Investigations of a Dog', the Arab-hating jackals of 'Jackals and Arabs', the obsessive unnamed animal in 'The ...

STORIES. by Ceridwen Dovey · RELEASE DATE: Sept. 15, 2015. Wonderfully weird and profoundly witty, Australian writer Dovey (Blood Kin, 2008) recounts a history of 20th-century human catastrophe in 10 short stories, each told by an animal who was there. In "Pigeons, a Pony, the Tomcat, and I," a house cat—inadvertently separated from her beloved bohemian owner—prowls the trenches of the western front, giving comfort to the soldiers and recounting adventures from better days.
