What is a Performance Bond? A performance bond is a guarantee, issued by a "surety," providing that the bonded contractor (the Principal) has the financial ability to complete a project for the owner or general contractor (the Oblige). A performance bond is not insurance: if the contractor fails, the surety will demand repayment of any money used to complete the project.

A performance bond is a contract. An unreasonable grasp onto a defense to avoid performance is an example of that breach. If the surety breaches its obligations and refuses to perform, the obligee should move forward with completion and seek reimbursement from the defaulted contractor and the surety for costs to complete. ■
