James Swallow - Wikipedia
The Unsettling Stars is the third Star Trek novel released this year (behind The Last Best Hope and The High Frontier), and it is the first one in a series of Star Trek novels I identified in a recent Waiting on Wednesday article. As a result, I was rather pleased to get a copy of the audiobook format of this novel, especially as this book was written by the acclaimed author Alan Dean Foster.

The previous Titan novel, Sight Unseen, had ended with a cliffhanger that revealed that the new Titan first officer, Dalit Sarai, was spying on Riker and Captain Vale for Starfleet Intelligence. I was pleased that Fortune of War picked right up on that story-line, and made that a major thread in this novel. I'm glad this wasn't left hanging.
