George Herbert | Poetry Foundation

Herbert was a strongly religious poet who wrote mainly devotional verse on theological topics. "The Altar" was included in Herbert's only book of poetry, The Temple, published after his death in 1633. The Temple is split into three sections: "The Church-Porch," "The Church," and "The Church Militant." The sections move from the exterior of a church to its interior and from there to the human community of the church.
